This Week's READING:

Gausсен's Theopneustia pages Chapter 2 Section III, IV, & V [p.67-73, 73-89, 89-105]

Complete this Work Sheet and be prepared to discuss it.

#1 Fill in the blanks of Gausсен's Chapter 2 Section III opening: "And, first of all, all the Scriptures are without _____ called _____ OF GOD."

#2 Fill in the blanks of Gausсен's theme for Section III "David was a _____," says St Peter. - (Acts ii. 30.) Mark what he himself says he is: "The Spirit of the Lord _____," says he, "and HIS _____ WAS UPON MY _____." - (2 Sam. xxiii. 1, 2.) "What David wrote," and even his words in detail, "he wrote _____ Ghost," said our Lord. - (Mark xii. 36.)

#3 Gausсен's Chapter 2 Section IV begins, "The whole _____ of Scripture places the writers of the New Testament in the same _____ with the _____ of the Old; and even when it establishes any _____ between them, it is always in putting the last in date above the first, in so far as one of God's sayings is _____ (not doubtless in divinity, not in dignity, but in authority) to the _____ that _____ it."

#4,5,6 On p.74 what three considerations does Gausсен use to support that the writers of the New Covenant (The Apostles) were superior to those of the Old (the prophets). Ergo their inspiration could not be inferior in anyway.

1. First, let us distinctly perceive what their _____ was not, ... and ... that their inspiration could not be, _____ to that of their predecessors.

2. Listen further to the _____ [p.76] that were made to them for the _____ of such a work.

3. See them, further, commencing their _____ ministry on the day of Pentecost: see what _____ they received.

#7 In your words how does Gausсен contend objections that Luke and Mark were not apostles and consequently did not receive the same inspiration of their writings?

Please print this worksheet and pencil it in the old fashioned way; you learn best with a pencil in hand (one does not learn much with cut and paste technology). After its completion please let Pastor Rice know, (email, webinar, or phone) he is tracking your effort. If you are stuck, have questions or comments please include them, he has an answer key.
