Vol 1 Prolegomena –
the introduction to the 10 volumes of Systematic Theology.
“Let not the wise man
glory in his wisdom,
neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches: But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD which exercise
lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the LORD.”

Jer.9:23-24.

Vol 2 Bibliology will not be a Bible study, it will be a study of the Bible. What is it? Who wrote it? How did we get it? How accurate is it? How preserved is it? Sixty-six books written by forty authors over fifteen-hundred years that asserts itself to be inerrant, infallible, and verbally inspired. A thorough study is pertinent. The word Bibliology is derived from two Greek words, Biblios and logos. The former, of course, is a book, and/or a written document and the latter word “Ology” means a word, a discourse, a doctrine, a teaching, a matter under discussion, a thing spoken of or talked about, also the mental faculty of thinking, meditating, or reasoning about. It is so much bigger than a study. There really is no English equivalent that can capture the depth of ology in Bibliology. This work starts one on such a path of study. Please, God, bless this effort.

Vol 3 Theology Proper

- is the thorough study of God the Father

Learning about God is paramount for a

Christian and fundamental for all humanity as is born

out in scripture:

“That all the people of the earth may know that the LORD is God,
and that there is none
else” (1Kngs.8:60).

Vol 4 Christology

- is foundational to everything one is to know in theology. It is “first principle” it is “milk” and it is what brings us to “strong meat.” There is no better introduction to the doctrine of Christ than is found in God's first sentence to the Hebrews. “God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; ...” (Heb 1:1-4)

Vol 5 Pneumatology When Jesus summarizes a subject, there is no greater summary. Jesus said, “Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:... the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.” (John 16:7-8,13)

Vol 06 Anthropology

And God said, Let us

make man in our

image, after our

likeness: ... So God

created man in his own image, in the image of God created

he him; male and female created he

them. Having thoroughly

considered the nature of God, we

now consider the nature of man.

Anthropology is the doctrine of man, or a discourse on human nature.

Vol 07 Hamartiology Man's plight in this world is sin, in Greek hamartia; thus Hamartiology" is the expansion of all that could be said about sin. In this volume is all that can be Biblically said about sin, and herein "Biblically" means from a fully believed, inerrant, infallible, verbally inspired, holy Bible. "Wherefore, as by one man (Adam) sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned"

Vol 08 Soteriology - "How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him; God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles ..." There is no greater theme extending from Genesis to Revelation, in the Holy Bible, than that of So Great Salvation, or Soteriology.

Vol 09 Ecclesiology

The Doctrine of the Church

Ecclesiology is the doctrine of the ecclesia, translated to English as the church. The origin of the word church comes from the Greek word kuriakos, meaning "the Lord's house." The English definition was extended to some extent to make it capture the full concept of Christ's Ecclesia. It had to capture that the Ecclesia is "a called out and assembled body of believers," i.e. believers in the Lord Jesus Christ. Three integral parts of this basic definition need to be emphasized. The church is "called out", it is "assembled", and it is "a body."

Vol 10 Angelology The Doctrine of Angels: Much has been written about angels, more has been presumed and misunderstood. The Holy Bible has no dissertation or thesis on the subject, but it does provide tremendous insights to angels. Even though it is not a theme of the Bible, there is much that could be learned about angels, and that learning can greatly benefit the believer. "Bless the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honour and majesty....Who maketh his angels spirits; his ministers a flaming fire..." Psalm 104:1,4

Vol 11 Eschatology
The Doctrine of Last Things. The Holy Bible, as “Thus saith the LORD”, portrays the past, the present and the future; that is, all the past of this universe, all the present of our circumstance, and all the future through eternity. “Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him:

and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.” (Rev 1:7) The fulfillment of Biblical prophecy of end times has, in the past, by sincere but misled scholars and theologians, been shrouded in mystery and allegorical misinterpretation. It need not be. When a Bible student keeps God's larger picture in focus, the coming Kingdom age, where the Messiah, the only begotten Son of God, rules this world from the throne of David set in God's holy hill of Zion, Biblical prophecy is no mystery, but a mainstay for the Bible believer!

Vol 12 Epilogue contains the introductions, table of contents and conclusions for eleven previous volumes of “A Systematic Theology for the 21st Century”:

The organization follows the traditional structure of: Prolegomena, Bibliology, Theology, Christology, Pneumatology, Anthropology, Hamartiology, Soteriology, Ecclesiology, Angelology, and Eschatology.
